The Paris team may play in Mt. Sterling before the holidays.

BLACKING CASES AT J. T. HINTON'S

A Good Egg Story.

The Lexington Herald says that W. W. Gill, ex-Parisian, ships 5,000 dozen eggs every month from Lexington to eastern markets. The Herald estimates that since Mr. Gill has been in the business that he has shipped 2,100,000 dozen eggs, which if placed end to end would reach from Lexington to Boston, a distance of 840 miles.

The Herald's statistician also figures that C. B. G. Lman has shipped 2,500,000 turkeys to Eastern markets. The turkeys would make a drove forty miles in length, reaching from Paris to Falmouth.

A Sweet Subject.

Geo. N. Parris, the enterprising Grocer and Confectioner, has secured the exclusive agency for Lowney's fine candies, and has a large line of those famous goods at his store. There's nothing nicer than a box of Lowney's chocolates for your sweetheart, during the holiday season—or any old time. If it's Lowney's it's all right.

You may find a few things here and there suitable for a present but if you want a whole lot of satisfaction in selecting, go to J. W. Davis & Co's.
